CROSSING CANADA IN HORSE-DRAWN MILK WAGON

A few months ago the papers were filled with the news that an English nurse was crossing Canada in a horse-drawn milk wagon, accompanied by a German shepherd dog.

On Friday, June 10th I had the privilege of meeting Miss Audrey W. Goodchild in person. I introduced myself and I arranged for an interview that I thought might be of interest to the readers of The Coleman Journal.

"Miss Goodchild, could you please tell me where you are originally from?"

"I'm from Seaford, Sussex, England."

"When did you first think of coming to Canada?"

"I first thought of coming to Canada during the Christmas of 1956 and I arrived in Canada in the June of 1957 taking up nursing in the Hamilton General."

"When and where did you plan this trip across Canada?"

"I started from Galt, Ont. August, 1958, and I spent that winter nursing in Port Arthur."

"Why did you choose to travel in this fashion?"

"I'm rather fond of animals and I like to see people and different places. If you travel by a horse-drawn vehicle you have more of a chance to see the country and it is an interesting way to travel."

As Miss Goodchild spoke, my eyes wandered over to where the dog was—a handsome German shepherd by the name of Jade, and always on alert with the horse. It is also a fine animal, well built and well trained as the dog. Jade was bought in Brampton, Ont., and Bill came from Waterloo, Ont.

"How many miles a day do you travel and how long do you estimate it will take to cross Canada?"

"I usually travel about 20 miles a day. I take eight to nine weeks out of every year for travelling and in those weeks I cover a distance of about 1,000 miles. I plan to be in Vancouver in a few weeks' time, and that will conclude three years of travelling. I usually take Sunday off from travelling."

"Miss Goodchild, what do you think of Canada?"

"I like Canada very much, although I don't think too much of the prairies. There are roads seem to be endless, straight, monotonous stretches of pavement. However, I love the lake and the wood-d areas such as those in Ontario and now I find them here in southwestern Alberta."

"What was your impression of The Rockies?"

"Just before leaving the prairies I got my first view of the Rockies. Their rugged beauty was well defined on the horizon. Then, as the foothills grew from the table land, the mountains disappeared behind them only to reappear more magnificent time and time again until I was surrounded by their beauty which cannot really be captured in words. Every part of Canada has a beauty all its own; every turn has a new and exciting adventure."

"Miss Goodchild, what are your plans after you reach Vancouver?"

"I plan to nurse and then go back to England, taking Jade and Bill with me. After that I plan to write a book about my impressions and adventures in Canada. The book will be based on facts about travelling with a horse and dog; points of interest I saw and any interesting facts connected with my trip."

I'm sure we all wish Miss Goodchild success in her travels and adventures in Canada. The book will be based on facts about travelling with a horse and dog; points of interest I saw and any interesting facts connected with my trip."

As told to Cecilia Kovach, for The Coleman Journal.

Rodeo Plans Are Discussed

The Coleman Board of Trade Rodeo committee met Wednesday evening when plans were discussed for the one-day rodeo to be held in Coleman on Saturday, July 9th and to be managed by Reg Kessler who will appoint an arena director.

The affair will get underway on Friday evening, when a giant 12-game bingo with a $500 jackpot prize will be held in the Coleman arena, operated by the Coleman Elks Lodge for the Board of Trade.

Should the large jackpot prize not be won on Friday night the jackpot will be played for during the intermission of the band concert being planned for the Coleman arena on Saturday night.

Plans for this affair have not yet been completed.

On Saturday morning the annual rodeo parade will march off at 10 noon sharp, and entries in this affair are invited by officials Jim Montalbetti and Angelo Gentile who are in charge of the parade and the bands.

The parade will be led by a colorful Vancouver band, and will also feature the Pincher Creek, Cowley and local Crows Nest Pass bands.

Arrangements are being made to have a number of shows in attendance. There will also be no question contest this year but arrangement are being made to have another event to replace this colorful affair.

The Rodeo will get underway at 2 p.m. sharp and cattle for the action packed show will be supplied by Reg Kessler. The show is a member of the CFA and IFA.

Bill Fraser of Coleman is president of the Rodeo committee while Armando Deluca will act as secretary and Orazio Ceili will take over the duties of treasurer.

T. Collister On Directors' Board

The Provincial Annual Meeting of the General Accountants Association of Canada was held at Red Deer, Alberta, on the 4th of June, 1960.

The meeting was well attended by members from Edmonton, Calgary and other parts of the province.

The enrolment of student-members, particularly in the last two years, has increased considerably, which in part, as was stated by the chairman, Mr. W. T. Michaelchuk, is attributable to the demand that the Canadian industry's tremendous expansion has created, for trained accountants who can not only take over accounting responsibilities of a corporation but who are also capable of interpreting financial data for the guidance of management.

The national course of studies that is presently administered by the University of British Columbia was highly commended by the attending student-members.

The following executives were installed for the ensuing year: W. T. Michaelchuk, Edmonton, chairman; E. D. Knox, Calgary, vice-chairman; and W. Peterson of Edmonton, secretary-treasurer.

Newly elected board of directors: Mr. T. Collister, Coleman, Alberta; Mrs. A. Carlyle, Devon, Alberta; Mr. Frank Warwick, Calgary, Alberta; Mr. O. E. Wilson, Calgary, Alberta.

New Forestry Appointment Made

Ludwig Margatak of Frank, last week accepted a position as Forestry Clerk in the Blainmore Forestry offices.

Mr. Margatak replaces Len Westhaver, who was transferred this month to a new post at Edson. Mr. Westhaver and family left earlier this month for Edson.

Prior to accepting his new position he was bar manager at the Turtle Mountain Hotel at Frank.

and prior to this was a driver for McColl-Fontenac. He is married and has three children and in Frank he is Mayor. He also serves as Frank representative on the Crows Nest Pass Consolidated School Board of Trustees.

Home, to a small boy, is merely a filling station.

C.

Past Chief Ethel Hill of Coleman, introduced the officers for the day which comprised District Deputy Grand Chief Mae Brown of Hillcrest, Past D.D.G.C. A banquet was catered to by the Ladies of the Church and held in the hall.

Following a recess the sessions resumed at 7 p.m. during which time Blanche Ford of Lethbridge, was presented with her Past District Secretary Grand Chief pin by Mae Brown, who in turn was presented with a gift by Mrs. Ford on behalf of the five temples.

Bottle Drive June 25th

Coleman Boy Scouts are planning to hold their annual bottle drive on Saturday, June 25th.

Persons having bottles to donate to the Scouts are asked to have the bottles ready for the collectors to avoid delay as the task of covering the entire town takes the Scouts a good deal of time.

Those wishing to give bottles to the Scouts are asked to leave the bottles outside for easy pickup. Proceeds from the annual bottle drive go towards promoting and paying for summer camps for the Scouts and for other Scout functions.

Coleman Volunteer firemen are busy finalizing plans for the annual July 1st Hose Coupling Competitions held in Coleman.

Fire Chief Henry Zak has announced that this year a second competition will be added to the affair where participating teams will have to use the new pumper unit purchased by the town of Coleman for the brigade.

Instead of having to attach the hose to the hydrant and then hit a target the new competition will see the competing teams have to hook the hose onto the pumper unit and spray the target from the pumper.

A competition will also be held for Cub groups from Pincher Creek, Blainmore and Coleman.

The affair will get underway with a parade of fireman's teams led by the Crows Nest Pass Band at 12 noon. Teams from all over Southern Alberta, British Columbia and Northern Montana will be taking part in the affair which has all the earmarks of being an enjoyable day.

A group of local girls have undertaken to assist the brigade by selling booster tags which will feature a prize of a Taster Oven to be drawn by the fireman's wind-up banquet held at the end of the day.

British Mechanical Monster Visits The Circus—

British Mechanical Monster visits the Circus — The long-necked giraffe is almost dwarfed by a British mechanical monster which was on show recently amongst the circus tents in Belfast, Northern Ireland. The giraffe is just tall enough to take a peep into the driving cab of this "Shepherd" Straddle Car rier, which has been designed by a British company for container handling.

The carrier, however, can carry a wide variety of loads between its tracks, such as timber, pipes, rods, bars, many types of fabrications, boilers, tanks, bricks, paper reels and bulk loads of drums, and is ideal for operation over rough ground conditions.

STAY-IN-SCHOOL

This is the time of year when young people start to think about leaving school to obtain permanent employment. Hundreds of students still in elementary school or the early years of high school will turn their backs on the classrooms of this country and walk into the work world, many unprepared to meet present demands, let alone the demands of the future.

In many instances, with them will go the shattered hopes of parents and relatives, for whether these young people realize it or not, they will be running the risk of never getting the chance to become a successful part of Canadian industry and business.

This situation is not confined to any strata of society, nor are its effects isolated by city limits or provincial boundaries. If the present rate of drop-outs from Canadian schools continues, with its adverse effects on the economy, it can't help but affect every individual, industry, and business establishment, in fact, every organization in this and future generations.

It has been said that education in its broadest sense, is the foundation of a nation. Can we afford to stand by and watch large numbers of our youth leave the school system unprepared for the modern demands of industry and citizenship?

About 70 per cent of the pupils enrolled in grade two in our schools today will leave the school system before receiving their junior matriculation or its equivalent, in many cases ill-equipped to compete for anything but the unskilled and semi-skilled types of employment—without the necessary flexibility to meet the problems workers are bound to face in the rapidly changing occupational categories resulting from the application of more and more advanced technology.

The magnitude of the problem is brought into sharp focus by a recent study carried out by the Department of Labor on figures produced by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. Of the 396,000 youngsters who enrolled in grade two in 1957-58, 131,000 will leave school before reaching high school, some with a grade eight education, others with less. Between first year high school and junior matriculation 139,000 more will drop out and 95,000 additional students will leave between junior matriculation and first year university. Only 31,000, less than 10 per cent, will go on to university.

What awaits the person who drops out of school without enough education to guarantee his or her future, in a highly industrialized country? An examination of occupations in Canada provides a pretty clear indication.

About 70 per cent of the jobs available in this country today are of a professional, semi-professional, technical or skilled nature, and only 30 per cent of employment consists of semi-skilled or unskilled occupations. It is in this last category of employment that most of those with less than a junior matriculation will find themselves competing, and if present trends continue the problem will become worse as the proportion of unskilled and semi-skilled jobs in the economy decreases in the future.

What is required is a basic change in our thinking and in social attitudes for, in the final analysis, the deplorable drop-out rate must reflect the fact that we adults are not yet convinced of the desirability or necessity of advanced education. Here is the crux of the problem. As parents we must realize the impact of advanced technology and automation on Canadian business and industry in recent years—What was adequate yesterday in the way of education is becoming less and less adequate today.

It is natural that some parents would judge present circumstances in the light of their own experiences and assess education today in the light of the education they received years ago, when Grade Eight was a relatively valuable asset in obtaining a job or learning a skill or trade. Today, to learn that same trade or skill, most youths will need a junior matriculation or better. This is not because the standards of the educational system have dropped, but it is because more basic education is required to understand the theories and laws involved in the production and maintenance of all the machines and products which we marvel at and enjoy in this complex age.

Just as our country has advanced in the past few decades, so our need for more education has increased. A full realization of this fact by all adults and children would surely bring about a much-needed change in social attitudes.

The solution to the school drop-out problem rests with every Canadian. The answers must come from industry, educators, governments, unions, and all organizations, as well as from the parents and the children themselves.

The form of the answers will differ, but they must recognize fact—that education can no longer be classed as a luxury, but rather as a necessity—a necessity for a people who must be flexible to face an ever-changing occupational pattern.

PROUDLY WESTERN

A Salute to the West's English Immigrants

Barr Colonists on the North Saskatchewan River above Lloydminster - 1904

Of all heroic stories written into Western history, that of the Barr colonists dramatically demonstrates the courage characteristic of English-born pioneers.

Recruited from London's working classes by a clergyman, Rev. I. M. Barr, who has been called variously an "idealist" and a "knaves", the 2,300 Barr colonists jamming a converted Boer war troop ship to twice its normal capacity, sailed from England on March 31, 1903. They were bound for "the promised land"—the fertile plains west of the fourth meridian, south of the North Saskatchewan river.

At Saskatoon hardship began to pile on hardship. Deserted by Barr, victimized by merchant suppliers, demoralized by their loss of possessions, disheartened by the savagery of the Canadian climate, they nonetheless made the agonizingly-slow journey by wagon across the prairie from Saskatoon. There a heart-breaking winter followed, for the colonists were woefully handicapped by their lack of agricultural knowledge.

Yet they stayed. The following year other Barr colonists joined them, some landing by rail at Strathcona to come down river in make-shift barges and scows, a ten-day journey during which men, women and children huddled together under no covering but a sky lashing cold spring rain.

And time has proved it was indeed a promised land they found!

Highways Minister Issues Statement

Gordon E. Taylor, Minister of Highways, issued a statement recently, drawing the attention of the public to the Amendments to the Vehicles and Highway Traffic Act that were passed at the last session of the Legislature.

He emphasized, particularly, the following points:

- 1- That a Magistrate will on and after June 1st be required to endorse the driver's license of any person convicted of any of the following offences:

A-As was previously done for the following convictions:

- 1- Wrongly going through traffic lights.
- 2- For speeding.
- 3- For racing on a highway or road.
- 4- For careless driving.
- 5- For any moving offence under the Criminal Code of Canada including having the care and control of a motor vehicle while ability is impaired.
- 6- For any city by-law fixing a speed limit.

B- The following offences have been added to the above effective June 1st:

- 1- Passing on a hill or curve or narrow bridge.
- 2- Driving left of centre line.
- 3- Tailgating (following another vehicle too closely).
- 4- Driving in the wrong traffic lane.
- 5- Turning without signalling.
- 6- Failing to give right of way at an intersection as required by law.
- 7- Making a right turn illegally at an intersection.
- 8- Making a left turn illegally at an intersection.

9- For going through a red light on a street or road or through a flashing light at a railway crossing.

10- For crossing from one side of the street to the other side illegally between intersecting streets.

11- For failing to stop before entering a highway or arterial street.

12- For passing a school bus that is taking on or letting off boys and girls.

13- For leaving the scene of an accident.

14- For breaking any municipal speed limit or any moving offence on a municipal road providing a municipal by-law has been passed in connection with same.

The Minister advised that each endorsement on the operator's license will also be reported to the Motor Vehicle Branch and will be placed in the individual file of the person concerned. Persons whose record indicates difficulty in driving within the law will be called out by the Department and notified by letter, and if improvement does not result the driver's license will be suspended. In addition, the courts will be suspending licenses for infractions as heretofore.

The Minister made reference to a second conviction for the following offences:

- (a) Speeding.
- (b) Driving to the left of the centre line.
- (c) Failing to stop before entering a main highway or arterial street.

A second conviction for any of these offences will mean that the Magistrate will suspend the driver's license immediately and return it to the Department.

All of this is being done in an attempt to reduce the terrible loss of human life that is taking place on our highways and streets.

2- Persons desiring to learn how to drive under the tutelage of a driver who holds a valid driver's license must secure a learner's permit from the driver examiners of the Department of Highways.

There will be no charge made for this permit and it will be valid unless otherwise cancelled, up to a maximum period of 24 months.

3- The Minister stated that regulations were being prepared by the Department to deal particularly with the spinners composed of protruding silver spikes that are found on the wheels of a few of our vehicles.

The regulation will also outlaw any decorations that interfere with the vision of the driver in any way.

The above regulations are presently being prepared and persons with vehicles containing the silver spikes on the hubs of their vehicles should have them removed immediately. Prosecutions will take place after the regulation has been properly made.

Alberta To Host Alcoholism Meet

Alberta will be host to the eleventh annual conference of the North American Association of Alcoholism Programs, it was announced recently by J. George Strachan, executive director of the Alcoholism Foundation of Alberta. Mr. Strachan is first vice-president of the association and program chairman for the conference.

The conference will be held this year at the Banff School of Fine Arts, from September 25 to 30. It will be attended by research, treatment and education specialists, administrators and board members from all provincial and state agencies in North America.

Eminent authorities from other sciences will also take part. It is expected that between 150 and 200 will attend the sessions, which will deal with all phases of alcoholism programming.

Mr. Strachan said: "There is steadily growing interest in the illness alcoholism and its related problems. Methods of treatment and research are improving, and more emphasis is gradually being placed on education aimed at earlier recognition of danger signs and symptoms, and eventually prevention."

Alcoholism treatment centres in all parts of the continent report that more and more patients are seeking help at earlier stages of the disease. Mr. Strachan said, "We hope that by expanding our educational and information services this trend will continue, public attitudes will improve and apathy toward the problem will be eliminated," he added.

Alberta's alcoholism program is among the best in North America. Mr. Strachan said The Alcoholism Foundation of Alberta was founded in 1951, and treatment centres are located at Calgary and Edmonton. Services are now being expanded to cover more urban centres and the rural population.

Canadian Dental Service Plans Incorporated

As a new health measure, the dentists of Alberta have inaugurated a budget payment plan for the public. This Dental Post Payment Plan is a method whereby a patient is able to receive the dental treatment he needs when he needs it, and pay for it on a time basis. This plan has been initiated because of the dental profession's concern for the health of the public. Not everyone can pay cash, but no one should deny himself the necessary dental care for fear of cost. It is the aim of the dental profession to undertake preventive treatment, and, when necessary, it may be paid for on an instalment basis.

In order to operate this plan, a new company has been formed... which is known as the Canadian Dental Service Plan Incorporated. This is a non-profit company, one of whose purposes is to administer the Post Payment Plan in the province, in order to encourage the dentists to extend, more broadly, their services to that segment of the public who are unable to pay cash; also to encourage the public, and most especially the middle and lower income family groups, to approach their dentist at an earlier stage so that preventive dentistry may be practised, as well as restorative and thus aid in reducing the cost of dentistry to the public.

The cost of the plan is to be borne partially by the patient, but mainly by the profession. Since there is no borrowed money involved, as in the case of financing, these costs are negligible. Under this plan the dentist does not receive any payment until the patient has made a payment. It should improve the dentists' business methods and allow him to devote more time to dentistry. The plan is voluntary for both patient and dentist.

The dental profession is presenting D.S.P.I. as a health measure, in the hope that it will produce better public relations between the dentist and the public, through participation in a professionally-sponsored public health plan. Post Payment Plans similar to this one are presently in successful operation in Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.

Unlike M.S.I. and other health service plans, there is no fixed fee paid continuously each month. Size and number of the payments are based on the paying ability of the patient and cost of the dental work which has been done or is being done. Offices of D.S.P.I. are located in Room 835, Tegler Building, Edmonton, where inquiries are welcome.

FORMER COLEMAN COUPLE WED IN CALGARY

LIEUT. and MRS. KENT R. FOSTER

The cloudy skies which hung over Calgary on Saturday, June 4, cleared in time to brighten with sunshine the afternoon wedding of Miss Adela Kathleen Zinook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Zinook of Coleman, Alberta, and Lieut. Kent Richard Foster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Foster of 5408 Thornton Road, Calgary.

At the service, held in the Wesley United Church, Miss Zinook wore a full-length gown of white taffeta covered with three tiers of nylon net and trimmed with lace.

A shoulder-length veil of white embroidered lace and a be-ribboned bouquet of red American Beauty roses completed the picture of a most beautiful June bride.

Attending the bride was her sister, Mrs. Josephine Philipps, as the matron of honor, and two bridesmaids, Miss Betty Whitford and Miss Eileen Foster.

All three wore gowns of coral embroidered lace and carried bouquets of white carnations.

The groom, in the uniform of his regiment the 2nd Battalion PPCLI, was escorted by his best man, Lieut. John de Chastelain, 2nd PPCLI, and his ushers, Lieut. Bruce Andrews, LDSE, Lieut. Dennis Burningham, RCA, and Lieut. Gordon Brislowe, LDSE.

The bride was given away by her father, and the parents of both the bride and groom were in attendance.

At the wedding banquet, held in Calgary's Al San ballroom, the toast to the bride and groom was proposed by Mr. Horace Allen principal of the Coleman high school, and the three-tiered cake was cut with a sword in traditional fashion.

Following the banquet the couple left for a nine-day honeymoon, the bride wearing a two-piece turquoise sheath set off with white accessories and a corsage of red Tailsman roses.

Lieut. and Mrs. Foster will make their home in Edmonton, Alberta, where the groom will complete his final year of chemical engineering at the University of Alberta before permanently joining his regiment.

Double Ring Rites At Holy Ghost Church

Carnations and Snapdragons banked the Altar at Holy Ghost Catholic Church on June 4th, at 11:00 a.m. for the double ring ceremony which united in marriage Miss Alice Castellano daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Silvio Castellano and Mr. David Peregotto, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Peregotto of Osoppe, Italy. Rev. Father Denis Fleming officiated at the wedding.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was beautifully gowned in a semi-formal of white silk organza fashioned with bouffant skirt. Fitted bodice featured lace and sequins adorned the portrait neckline and lily point sleeves. A lace and sequin tiara held her finger tip illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of roses and orange blossoms.

Bridesmaid Miss Ann Wesko was costumed in a ballerina length gown of aqua blue taffeta. She wore a matching lace clouch hat and carried a bouquet of yellow carnations. Best man supporting the groom was Mr. Denis Castellano (brother of the bride). Ushers Mr. T. Bubniak and Mr. J. Lant. Soloist Mrs. Betty Tymishu sang "Ave Maria" during the signing of the register. She was accompanied on the organ by Miss Connie Rejman.

As the bridal party left the Church the local fire brigade formed an arch with hoses and axes adorned with streamers and they also escorted them through the town with the fire trucks. (The groom is a member of the Coleman Volunteer Fire Brigade).

A reception was held in the banquet room in the Catholic Hall at 4:00 p.m. to approximately eighty guests. The bridal table was centered by a three tiered wedding cake and bouquets of carnations and peonies flanked with white tapers and place cards in the form of miniature buttonholes of lily of the valley. Rev. Father Fleming proposed the toast to the bride and groom to which the groom very ably responded.

Dancing was then enjoyed to the music of a Michel orchestra.

For the wedding trip to U.S.A. points the bride wore a light beige two piece suit with matching hat and accessories and a corsage of red roses. On their return Mr. and Mrs.

No Fun To Be Frantic

"The day has gone," claims the Canadian Highway Safety Council, "when the motorist on vacation must scour like a hounded hare over the highway."

"Relax!" is the holiday highway slogan today and the Council has issued a plea to all vacationing motorists to drive for pleasure, allot plenty of time for a trip, stop often and, most important, forget about jockeying for position in traffic.

"Motoring can be fun," the Council claims, "but not if it's frantic!"

The Council issued this plea for relaxed driving in connection with the continent-wide 'Slow Down and Live' campaign, scheduled to run through June, July and August in Canada, the United States and in Puerto Rico. Sponsored nationally in Canada by the CHSC, the campaign operates internationally under the guidance of the Association of State and Provincial Safety Coordinators. Its 1960 theme is - "Highway Safety Makes Driving Fun".

'Slow Down and Live' promotion will include urgent requests that motorists obey the rules of the road no matter where or in what country they drive. Relaxed and resourceful driving, CHSC said, can bring back some of the enjoyment in motoring that existed before the highways became over-populated with vehicles.
